Environmental Economics - EconS582

Ana Espinola-Arredondo
anaespinola@wsu.edu
Office Hours: Thursday 9:00-10:00, or by appointment

August 22, 2016
The concept that we will apply during the semester is:

KEEP CALM AND BE A PINEAPPLE
Introduction

- Students are expected to participate during class
  - Discussion of several papers

- 4 Assignments, Midterm #1 and Research Paper

- Homework #0: Referee Report (list of papers).
  - Allocation mechanism: FCFS

- HW#1-HW#3 are related to your research paper
First presentation: October 17th - October 31st
- From a list of papers (distributed during class and posted on the website) you will have to choose a paper to discuss
- Pineapple concept: 3 Groups of three and 2 Group of two students
- 40 minutes presentation

Midterm #1: Case study. Team work. (pineapple concept)

Second presentation: November 28th - December 12th
- Discuss your research idea (Motivation, Literature and Model)
- Evaluation: peer evaluation

December 12th: Submission of Research paper